- a. Hall of Fame candidates may be nominated by the general public, organizations or "Salute to Excellence" Committee members using established forms.
- b. *A nominated candidate MUST have been at one or more times a resident of the Town of Wheatland, operated a business or worked in the Town of Wheatland to be eligible for selection to the Hall of Fame.
- c. A Hall of Fame candidate may be nominated posthumously.
- d. Multiple nominations may be accepted for a single Hall of Fame candidate, however only one nomination and nominator is required.
- e. *Contributions made by a Hall of Fame candidate shall be SIGNIFICANT IN MAGNITUDE and of NOTABLE IMPORTANCE, while making a POSITIVE IMPACT ON THE COMMUNITY. Contributions should also be clearly tangible and understandable.
- f. *In general, the contributions of a Hall of Fame candidate should have facilitated a constructive "change" associated the community.
- g. A candidate must have contributed more to the community than just being a recognizable individual with high local visibility; or a generally good person, such as a model community citizen.
- h. A candidate should not have negatively impacted the community through general or specific actions outside of the scope of the contributions defined in the nomination.
- i. Active Salute to Excellence Committee members may be considered for the Community Hall of Fame, but shall not participate in the evaluation of their candidacy or the candidate selection process.
- j. Contributions may be related to a candidate's job or profession, but should not be directly attributable to what they are expected to do as a normal course within their job (i.e., what has the candidate done that has gone above and beyond their job expectations to show leadership, create change or give back to the community).
- k. Membership in another community, school, industry or other recognition organization shall not be used as consideration for candidate evaluation.
