

Wheatland

Volunteer of Distinction

Nomination Form

The Wheatland Community Hall of Fame includes citizen recognition associated with community volunteerism referred to as “Volunteers of Distinction” which is governed and supported by the Greater Wheatland Area Chamber of Commerce. The purpose “Volunteers of Distinction” Program is to recognize and honor residents who have made positive contributions through demonstrated excellence as a volunteer in support of the Town of Wheatland community. A volunteer is defined as someone who freely gives time, effort and talent to a community need, cause or organization without compensation (i.e., getting paid).

Nominee Information

Name (individual):

Brief Nominee Background:

Description of the Volunteer Contribution (include specifics how this person’s contribution demonstrates excellence as a volunteer and as such, why this person deserves consideration as a “Volunteer of Distinction”).

Nominator Information

Name (Individual or organization):

Date Submitted:

Relationship to Nominee:

Describe how you know about the Nominee’s contributions:

Nominations of candidates for selection as a “Volunteer of Distinction” may only be accomplished by completion of this nomination form, duly submitted to: Greater Wheatland Chamber of Commerce P.O. Box 95 Scottsville NY, 14546, by the annual published call for nominations deadline.

- a. “Volunteers of Distinction” candidates may be nominated by the general public, organizations or Salute to Excellence Committee members using established forms.
- b. Nominations must be submitted to the Committee within the time specified in any notice requesting a call for nominations.
- c. A Volunteer of Distinction candidate may not be nominated posthumously (must be living at time of nomination).
- d. Multiple nominations may be accepted for a single “Volunteers of Distinction” candidate, however only one nomination and nominator is required.
- e. A nominated candidate shall generally have been a resident of the Town of Wheatland when the described volunteer actions were performed, however where appropriate non-residents may be considered.
- f. A nominated candidate shall not have received compensation for volunteer actions associated with this nomination (i.e., stipends are not considered compensation).
- g. The volunteer actions of a nominated candidate shall have clearly made a positive impact within the community and been performed with demonstrated excellence. Considerations of excellence include:
 - Impact of actions,
 - dedication,
 - scope of effort,
 - longevity,
 - innovation,
 - collaboration,
 - breadth of actions (i.e., multiple overlapping actions).
- h. Candidate nominations for existing “Volunteers of Distinction” will not be considered (an individual can only be recognized once as a “Volunteer of Distinction”).
- i. Active Salute to Excellence Committee members are eligible for consideration as a “Volunteer of Distinction”, but shall not participate in their candidacy evaluation process.